

Venture Risk Investigations to speak at seminar on protecting businesses from crime

By Venture Risk Investigations

Dated: May 11, 2010

Sinai Megibow, Director of Investigative Services at Venture Risk Investigations, will be one of the expert speakers at a seminar entitled "Emergency Management/Crime Prevention & Crime Reduction Techniques for Your Business" at the end of May.

Sinai Megibow, the Director of Investigative Services at Venture Risk Investigations, will be featured on a panel of speakers to address issues on how to protect businesses from both internal and external threats and crime. This program is being held on Tuesday, May 25, 2010, from 8:00 a.m. until 10:00 a.m.; a free continental breakfast is included. The seminar is entitled "Emergency Management/Crime Prevention and Crime Reduction Techniques for Your Business."

Location: Harbor Links Club House, One Fairway Drive, Port Washington, NY 11050.

The program has been organized by the Town of North Hempstead Business & Tourism Development Corporation.

What are the threats facing business owners? Where are the threats coming from, and how real are they? More importantly, what can business owners do to protect themselves from these threats or recover after they have been victimized?

The Town of North Hempstead Business & Tourism Development Corporation has assembled a group of experts on these issues to assist business owners in assessing vulnerabilities, developing business preparedness plans, learning crime prevention and reduction techniques, and understanding how to set-up internal controls to avoid and detect embezzlement, fraud, merchandise theft, and other employee issues.

This seminar is a must for all those who are interested in keeping their business safe in today's harsh business environment.

The seminar will also feature the following speakers:

- * Dr. Barbara H. Sude, Senior Political Scientist, RAND Corporation.
- * Robert Beckmann, Deputy Sheriff Lieutenant, and Community Emergency Response Team Director, Nassau County Office of Emergency Management.
- * Sergeant William Leahy, Commanding Officer, Division of Homeland Security, Nassau County Police Department.
